

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS NOTICE

WHAT HAS BEEN DECIDED?

The Responsible Authority has decided to amend a permit. The amended permit has not been issued.
This notice sets out the changes to be made to the existing permit.

WHAT ABOUT APPEALS?

For the Applicant—

- The person who applied for the amendment to the permit may apply for review of any amendment to what the permit will allow, and any new or amended condition to which the permit will be subject, and any provision of the permit which the applicant asked to be amended but which has not been amended. The application for review must be lodged within 60 days of the giving of this notice.

For an Objector—

- An objector may apply for review of the decision of the Responsible Authority to amend a permit. The application for review must be lodged within 28 days of the giving of this notice.
- If there is no application for review, an amended permit will be issued after 28 days of the giving of this notice.

For a recommending referral authority—

- A recommending referral authority may apply for review of the decision of the responsible authority—
 - (a) to grant the amended permit, if that recommending referral authority objected to the grant of the amended permit; or
 - (b) not to include a condition on the amended permit that the recommending referral authority recommended.
- The application for review must be lodged within 28 days of the giving of this notice.
- If there is no application for review, a permit will be issued after the 28 days of the giving of this notice.

For all applications for review—

- An application for review is lodged with the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
- An application for review must be made on the relevant form, which can be obtained from the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, and be accompanied by the applicable fee.
- An application for review must state the grounds upon which it is based.
- A copy of an application for review must be served on the responsible authority, each other party and each other person entitled to notice of the application for review under the Planning and Environment Act 1987 and the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 within 7 days after lodging the application with the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
- Details about applications for review and the fees payable can be obtained from the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal.
